The DLC concept that is featured in this software development document is fictional. Since it is intended for GTA Online, a game that is owned by Rockstar Games, it will feature some aspects or concepts of their game to help me illustrate the DLC concept.

Any imagery that is owned by Rockstar Games, is only used by me for educational purposes, to help explain a concept that I am proposing.

No type of illegal or unauthorized modification to GTA Online is being proposed in this document. I am only reusing certain aspects of their game in a hypothetical manner. I am also including other components for addition into GTA Online.

Any other images found in this document are used solely for educational purposes and are property of their respective owners. Using any images from public sources does not mean I am claiming ownership over the images.

I will also use the GTA Online logo to help me illustrate some of the concepts I am proposing

Enhanced Missiles

Military Group

I am currently deconstructing (learning) GTA Online's Targeting, Homing, and Explosion System to adapt it to some components found in the GTA Online Spy Satellite DLC. In doing that process, the concept of Enhanced Missiles for use in the GTA Online Spy Satellite DLC was created.

In this presentation, the Enhanced Missiles will be the topic of focus. Enhanced Missiles will be of the following types:

- Physics Scrambler Missiles
- EMP Missiles
- Time Altering Missiles
- Gravity Altering Missiles
- Missiles that Fire Smaller Missiles
- Radar-Cloak Reveal Missiles
- Sticky Bomb Missiles

The Javelin Missile Launcher was the tool of choice to use these in GTA Online. However, there are other ways these missile types can be incorporated into GTA Online's gameplay.

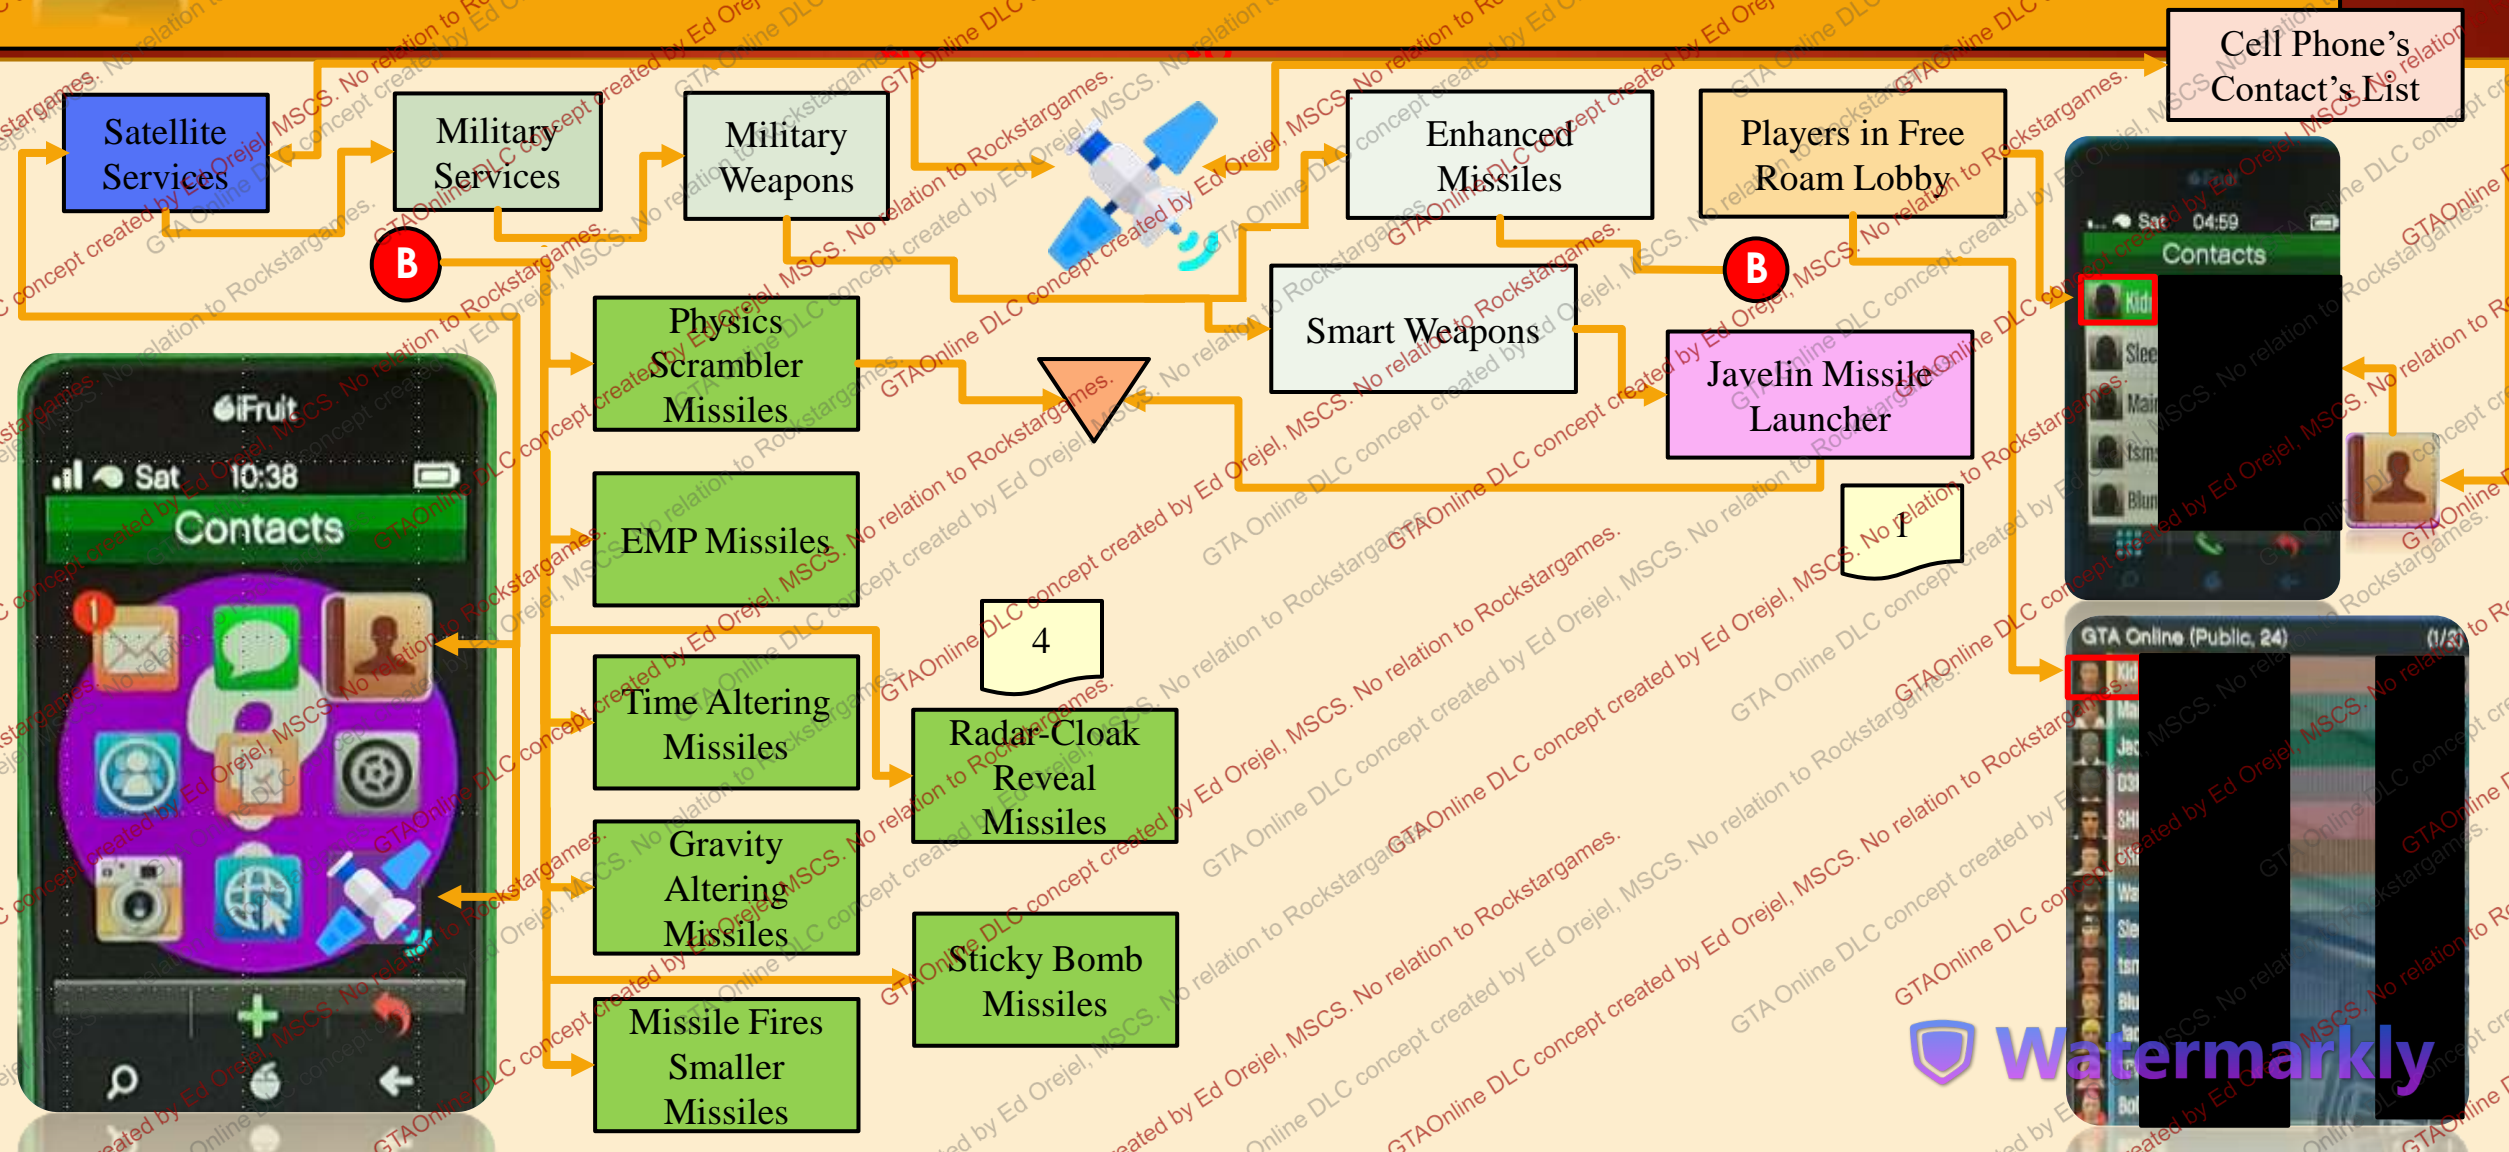

The effects of the missiles can be used in various aspects to create other types of content for GTA Online.
